Trust to Nature.

A great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive aid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the whites which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherrybark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy.

Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alcohol.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glyceric extracts of the above mentioned vegetable ingredients and contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.

Typhoon at Hong Kong.

Ten thousand lives blotted out, 17 steamers and sailing vessels wrecked or badly damaged, over a thousand junks swamped, turned over or battered to pieces against the stone walls of the praya, 80 per cent. of the lighters, launches, yachts, houseboats and small native craft entirely destroyed; many wharves wrecked, many damaged, was the result of a typhoon lasting but two hours at Hong Kong on September 18, according to advices brought to Victoria, B. C., by the steamer Empress of Japan, one of the few vessels to escape the disaster.

The Empress of Japan but a day before gave place at the Kowloon Company's wharf to the steamer Changsha, which was entirely wrecked at the dock. Kowloon sustained the heaviest loss, but all sections of Hong Kong and the Hinterland suffered. There were 24 Europeans among those killed; others were Chinese, mostly of the junk population.

Bishop J. C. Hofer, bishop of Hong Kong, was drowned. His junk capsized when he was bound on a preaching voyage to a fishing village.

The damage at Hong Kong and Kowloon and vicinity is estimated at over $20,000,000.

The junkmen usually make for shelter when the warning gun is fired, but on the morning of the storm the signal was fired at 8:10 and at 8:30 the typhoon was at its height. The junkmen skurried for shelter, colliding with each other, cutting down yachts, houseboats, etc., striving through the driving rain to reach Causeway Bay. Thousands were soon thrown into the sea, lashed to a fury with waves 20 and 30 feet high. The wind blew the junks around and sent them swirling and twisting to be dashed to pieces against the praya, where hundreds of junks and sampans were dashed to match wood and the mangled bodies of the crews battered against the stone walls within sight of those on shore powerless to lend aid. The storm ceased as quickly as it began. The sun shone then on scenes of unparalleled destruction at Hong Kong. This typhoon exceeded all others experienced there in severity.

Hundreds of bodies were swept ashore and the work of carrying them away by cartloads to impromptu morgues began at once, corpses being photographed in groups of eight and tagged for identification.

Hundreds of mangled bodies were piled among the debris and the scenes were sickening. It was evident soon after the storm began that the shipping would not ride it out, and vessel after vessel dragged, swerved and was driven ashore, some being piled right among the stately buildings which line Hong Kong's sea front.

Loss of a Whaleback Barge.

The whaleback barge Berkshire, Capt. Alson Trudo, with all on board, was lost by the whaleback steamer Bay State, which had her in tow, at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon off the Virginia coast, about 30 miles north of Cape Charles Light, and nothing has since been seen or heard of her.

The barge was bound to Newport News from Lynn, Mass., in ballast.

After the barge parted her hawser the Bay State attempted to get her in tow again, but owing to the high seas and terrific wind the steamer refused to obey her helm, and Captain Peterson, her skipper, was compelled to proceed to Newport News and leave the barge to its fate. Captain Peterson stated that when he first ran into the storm, just north of Winterquarter Light, the Berkshire broke loose, but was gotten in tow again and made fast with a wire cable and hemp hawser and the voyage continued.

A few hours later, however, both the cable and hawser parted, and the barge was soon lost to view.

The Berkshire is owned by the Boutelle Steel Barge Company, of Boston, and is valued at $75,000. She was built on the Great Lakes.

Returned to His Wife.

H. Clyde Fore, of Richmond, who deserted his girl wife 17 months ago, and who was supposed to have been buried in Lunenburg 12 months ago, went back to Richmond yesterday and claimed his wife. He was in good shape, except that he was minus one eye and several of his ribs were broken in a railroad wreck out West. The railroad company recompensed him well for his injuries. He has rented a hotel at Keysville, Va., and went into a Main street lunchroom in Richmond where his young and pretty wife has supported herself as waitress, and asked her forgiveness. There were embraces, tears and a reconciliation, and they will go to Keysville to run the hotel together. When 14 Georgie Harris eloped on a freight train in the night from Charlotte county to meet Fore at Oxford, where they were married. The corpse buried by Fore's family in Lunenburg as his, will, perhaps, long remain a mystery. Mrs. Fore is now less than 20.

Explosion of an Automobile.

An automobile while running at a high rate of speed on Detroit avenue, northwest, Cleveland, Ohio, struck a trolley pole at Kenilworth avenue in Lakewood, a suburb, early yesterday and exploded. Everyone of the four occupants of the car was injured and two may die. Two ladies were in the automobile at the time of the accident. The car was valued at $4,200, and was owned by M. J. Mindeltaum, the traction owner and banker. According to Camra, who was driving the machine, something went wrong with the machinery. The car suddenly swerved from the roadway and struck the trolley pole. The collision and explosion seemed to be simultaneous. The 15 gallons of gasoline in the reservoir of the machine let go with a roar and enveloped all the occupants of the machine in flames.

Daring Robbery.

A unique and daring robbery was committed at Coepenick, a town seven miles east of Berlin, yesterday afternoon. The robber, in the uniform of a captain of the guards, met a detachment of 12 men on a street in Berlin, who were returning from target pratice. He produced a forged cabinet order authorizing him to take command. The men recognized his authority and he then ordered them to march to Coepenick. Upon arrival there they proceeded to the town hall, arrested the burgomaster and the treasurer and took possession of the cash, $1,000. The robber detached several of his men to conduct the prisoners to headquarters in Berlin, and ordered the remainder to hold possession of the town hall for half an hour. He then rode off alone in the direction of Berlin with the money. The bugomaster and the treasurer were greately mystified at the meaning of their arrest. Upon their arrival in custody at headquarters in Berlin they learned that the ostensible captain was a fraud, and were immediately discharged. The bogus captain has not been heard from, and the police and military authorities are without any clue whatever as to his identity.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 17, 1906.

AS HAD been anticipated, Mrs. Varina Davis, widow of Jefferson Davis, died last night at the Hotel Majestic in New York. Dispatches to the Gazette yesterday stated that she was sinking and that her death was a matter of a few hours. Mrs. Davis was by birth, surroundings and education noble from every standpoint, and throughout her long life she exemplified all the instincts of true femininity. Wedded while in her teens, she became the consort of a great man, who shines forth in history as one of the foremost characters of the country and one who played a conspicuous part in its history. During the early manhood of her husband she was his guiding star, and contributed no little toward hastening him into the prominence where his natural abilities were leading him. It was doubtless her smiles and encouragement which spurred him from one step of fame to another until a truly solid South called upon him to preside over its destinies. There were many disappointments to overcome during the four years' conflict, but Mrs. Davis, noble woman as she was, surmounted them all, and when the curtain fell upon the last act of the Southern Confederacy and the political life of her husband had been brought to a close, she was with him, not in an executive mansion, but at a camp fire in the woods pursued by federal soldiers. Adversity never crushes the true and great, and amid the many scenes through which the subject of this notice passed after the close of the war she proved herself superior to them all. It was her lot to follow Mr. Davis to the tomb, and before the keen edge of that affliction had been dulled by Time her daughter Winnie, the companion of her declining years and the sharer of her sorrows, was called from her side by death. She has at last reached the end of her long pilgrimage. Admired and respected as she was throughout life, the announcement of her death is received with sincere regret by a large host of friends in every part of the country.

SO LONG as there is hope there will be courage and endeavor. All men give up, however, when hope departs. There is the danger of the present situation. The people have begun to fear the very men they have trusted, and unless there is a change in the government from the present undemocratic regime to one which will restore public confidence, many will welcome a despot as the only means of escape from despised and hated petty tyrants organized as trusts and controlling the party in power. It was so in old Rome. Cicero, in his letter to Atticus, speaking of Caesar said: "By Jove, if he does not kill any one, and spares the property of those who are so terrified, he will be in high favor. I talk with farmers and tradesmen. They care for nothing but their lands, houses, and money. They have gone right round. They fear the man they trusted, and love the man they feared, and all this through our own blunders. I am sick to think of it."

MRS. J. L. HARSHA, one of the most prominent women of Beaver Falls, Pa., was fined $5 and costs Saturday by a Justice of the Peace for conducting a game of chance. The action was brought by Mrs. James Bronson under an act which prohibits gambling. Mrs. Bronson did this because her daughter, a girl of 18, was spending too much of her time at card parties. Several nights ago Mrs. Harsha gave a bridge party, and Miss Bronson was one of the guests. The party did not break up until late in the morning. Mrs. Bronson declared that her daughter spends so much of her time at card parties that it is impossible to get her to do anything else. Mrs. Harsha pleaded guilty at the suggestion of her attorneys and paid the fine. The only thing she said in the way of defense was: "Miss Bronson didn't win." Similar instances are common in most every town and city in the country and gambling among women is said to be on the increase.

IN THE amount of capital invested in manufacturing and in the value of manufactured products the South has advanced in the past five years, according to the returns just made public by the factory census of the United States, at a greater speech than any other section. During this five year period the percentages of increase in the South in capital—65—and in the value of products—44.4—were greater than in any other division in the country.

THE word has gone forth that hereafter in the schools of Pittsburg hat trimming and fancy millinery shall be taught to the girls of the higher classes. The system was first started in the Minersville school, and proved a great success. It would be well if lessons in some useful occupation were taught in all the schools.

UNDER the new electoral bill proposed for Austria the voting privilege hitherto accorded to women who are landed proprietors is left out. Woman suffrage has proven a failure wherever tried.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 17.

Captain Couden, commanding the battleship Louisiana, sent a message to the Navy Department this morning announcing the arrival of his ship at Hampton Roads with Secretary Taft and his party on board. Owing to rough water, Secretary Taft changed his plans, and started for Washington by train instead of on the Dolphin, as had been intended. This information has been awaited with considerable anxiety, there having been some fears entertained on account of the heavy storm and fog which has prevailed on the coast of the Carolinas in the last 24 hours.

Secretary Taft and his party were given pratique by the Virginia health authorities at Hampton Roads, which relieved them of any necessity of undergoing any quarantine.

The hearing in the case of the Penn Bridge Company, indicted for violation of the eight hour law, was brought to trial this morning before Judge Mullowny and a jury in the Police Court. The line of defense as indicated by the attorneys will be that the eight hour law is unconstitutional and that every man has a right to work as long as he pleased regardless of any laws which may be made on the subject.

Capt. F. E. C. Ryan, naval attache of the British Embassy, introduced to the President today Sir William Perkin, the well known chemist and analyist, and Sir James Woodhouse, a member of the English Parliament. In the party were also Lady and the Misses Perkin. Sir William is in this country to receive several honorary degrees from institutions of learning.

It is said that at the Cabinet meeting yesterday, it was definitely settled that Postmaster General Cortleyou will succeed Leslie M. Shaw as Secretary of the Treasury when he retires. Ambassador Meyer is slated for the Navy Department and Secretary Bonaparte to succeed Attorney General Moody.

Attorney General Frank Feulle, of Porto Rico, was at the White House this morning to pay his respects to the President. He reports unprecedented prosperity on the sugar and the tobacco plantations on the island, as a result of which the foreign trade of Porto Rico has increased remarkably. The coffee crops have been very poor ever since the great storm which swept over the island in 1899.

The Supreme Court this afternoon issued a mandate to the Department of Justice in the case of Former U. S. Senator Joseph H. Burton, of Kansas, whose motion for a rehearing of a former application for a new trial was denied by the court on Monday. Attorney General Moody and Solicitor General Hoyt expect to take up the mandate for consideration today and determine upon a date for sending the papers to Missouri, directing the Judge of the Eastern District of that State to carry out the sentence of his court, whereby Burton will pay a fine of $2500 and serve six months in the Iron County jail at Ironton, Mo. There is no disposition upon the part of the Government to deal with unusual harshness in this case. The fact that none of Burton's counsel is in Washington places the matter entirely in the hands of the Department of Justice for the exercise of its discretion.

P. G. Raisle, forty-five years old, died at 430 H street northwest, this morning. Before his death, which he calmly awaited, he chose his pallbearers and the cemetery in which he wished to be buried. He had been a great sufferer from cancer.

The Treasury Department has taken hold of the matter of the alleged shortage in the St. Louis subtreasury, and is making a thorough investigation, which will cover all the branches of that institution. Acting Secretary of the Treasury Keep states that the apparent shortage is $80,000, and that it will be a week of ten days before it can be definitely determined whether there has been a defalcation, or merely an error in the accounts.

In a Dilemma.

Illinois labor leaders who gathered at Streator, Ill., yesterday at the annual State labor convention are in a dilemma. The political priests of labor are at sea over the programme to be followed in Speaker Cannon's district. Samuel Gompers has ordered a fight on Cannon in the coming election.

Labor leaders are willing to carry out his orders, but are wondering how it is to be done without incurring the enmity of the United Mine Workers, the leading labor organization in Illinois. John H. Walker, of Danville, a member of the miners' union, is in Streator, supported by about sixty miner delegates, who are advocating the indorsement of his candidacy against Congressman Cannon. The trouble is Walker is a candidate on the socialist ticket.

The American Federation of Labor, and particularly President Gompers, it is admitted, never will stand for supporting a socialist. Walker's friends see the difficulty, but demand his indorsement on the ground that he is trade unionist. The miners incidentally control about one third of the delegates in the convention. W. D. Ryan, secretary of the Illinois miners, says if the federation does not indorse Walker it will have to answer to the United Mine Workers. To add to the situation, President Barney Cohen, of the State labor body, in the morning session of the convention, made a speech intimating that Gompers' political activity was injuring the cause of labor. "History of labor movements," said Cohen, "have been that when political action has been taken by a union, that body has been rent by dissension and personal jealousies, and there is no reason to doubt that history will repeat itself."

Fatal Plunge of Submarine.

The French submarine boat Lutin, which left yesterday morning for plunging experiments, has been lost. The crew of the Lutin numbered 14 men under command of Lieutenant Phoepen The Lutin is a single screw steel submarine boat, built at Rochefort in 1901. She carried a complement of nine men. She is 135 feet long, and has a displacement of 184 tons. The loss of the Lutin recalls the catastrophe to the French submarine boat Farfadet July 6, 1905, at the entrance to the port of Sidi Abdallah, Tunis. Commandant Rotier, of the Farfadet, noticed, at the moment of plunging, that one of the doors was not closed properly, and rushed to try to adjust it. He was too late, however, and the boat sank. Fourteen men perished.

To the astonishment, apparently, of her own counsel, Mrs. Jones Wister, of Philadelphia, who is contesting the will of her father-in-law, the late William Weightman, plucked up her courage yesterday and determined to go after the $60,000,000, single-handed, if necessary.

The real estate men in Washington are excited and interested at the report that a number of New York capitalists are considering the purchase of real estate near Washington to establish, near the city, a course over which the future Vanderbilt cup automobile races may be held.

The effect on racing in France and perhaps in other countries of last Sunday's riot at Longchamps may be considerable. That the government would take cognizance of the affair was a foregone conclusion, and its decision, announced after a meeting of the cabinet yesterday, was that there would be no more racing at Longchamps this season.

He covered the seven-eighths of a mile in 1:22 carrying 126 pounds, and defeating the only other entry in the race. Beauclaire, exactly one sixteenth of a mile. The negro shot twice in resisting arrest. Seeing resistance was useless, he then shot himself. The bullet penetrated his neck and came out at his right eye. After his capture, Hardy admitted that he shot Officer Beard four times, and that he was shot once in the hip. There were signs on the bed of a violent struggle during his dying agonies. Hays went to Harrisonburg, October 8. He was melancholy the greater part of the time, and was brooding over the death of his wife, which occurred only a short time before. He had threatened to kill himself, and precautions were taken to prevent him from doing himself harm.

The Market.

DEATH OF MRS. DAVIS.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the President of the Confederacy, who had been ill for a week at the Hotel Majestic, in New York, died at 10:25 last night. Death was due to pneumonia, induced by a severe cold which Mrs. Davis contracted upon her return from the Adirondacks, where she had spent the summer months.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis was born in Mississippi, in Adams county, in 1826. Her maiden name was Varina Howell. She was a descendant of the Virginia Howell family, of whom the most distinguished in modern times was Howell Cobb. Her father, William Burr Howell, won high distinction in the revolutionary war and in the war of 1812. He served under McDonough, on Lake Champlain, on the Saratoga.

Varina Howell became the wife of Jefferson Davis before she completed her eighteenth year, being his second wife. His first wife, who was a daughter of General Taylor, died a short time after their marriage.

Mrs. Davis was known for her clear judgment, and she decided the first time that she saw her future husband that he was the right man. She was then 17 years old, and was invited at that time to come over to the Hurricane, the Davis place, to meet Jefferson, who had been away from home for a long time. She never had seen him before, but he had been making a great reputation for himself at that time, and his fame had spread everywhere throughout the State.

Mr. Davis was then about 36 years of age, tall, of commanding presence, and counted the most graceful horseman in the State.

Miss Howell was married to Jefferson Davis the following year. She went on an extended tour through the South, and was the center of attraction for New Orleans society of that time during her stay at St. Charles. Later in Washington she was with her husband all the time, helping him with his speeches and doing everything in her power to advance him. Shortly before the war broke out she went first to Montgomery, Ala., and later to Richmond, where she remained until it became unsafe for her to stay in the city. She remained in the South during her husband's imprisonment. After Mr. Davis's release from imprisonment at Fort Monroe they went to England, returning afterward to live in Memphis, Tenn. Later they removed to Beauvoir station, on the Mississippi coast, where Mrs Davis acted as her husband's amanuensis when he wrote his "Decline and Fall of the Confederate Government."

From time to time offers of financial assistance were made to Mrs. Davis after her husband's death from societies through the South. She declined all these and has preferred to remain independent. Except for occasional articles written for newspapers and magazines, she has remained quiet for the last few years.

Mrs. Davis had four children, of whom only one survives. That is Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, of Colorado Springs, whose husband is a member of an old family in Nashville. Of Mrs Davis's other children one fell off a gallery in Richmond during the civil war and was killed. Another son, Jefferson, died in Memphis of yellow fever, in 1878. Her daughter, Miss Winnie Davis, who was born in Richmond in June, 1864, became famous as the "Daughter of the Confederacy." She died at the Rockingham Hotel, Narragansett Pier, R. I., September 18, 1898, and was buried in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, where the body of her father also rests.

Miss Winnie Davis was a beautiful girl, of a lovely disposition, and for years before her death was her mother's constant companion. The two spent much of their time in New York in winter, and at Narragansett Pier and other northern resorts in the summer.

As Jefferson Davis left no male descendant Mrs. Hayes' son is expected to perpetuate his name. When the boy was born, the State of Mississippi, by act of the legislature, changed his name to Davis, so the boy is known as Jefferson Hayes Davis.

Mrs. Davis wrote a book entitled "Jefferson Davis, ex-President of the Confederate States; a Memoir by His Wife."

After the death of her husband Mrs. Davis had repeated and flattering offers from publishers all over the country to write a history of the inner life of the Confederacy, and especially of the family and her husband. Only a year before his death Jefferson Davis began to write his own autobiography. He was so weak from illness that he was compelled to dictate the matter to a friend. But even then he was unable to get through with more than an introductory chapter. From this point his wife took up the thread of the story, and the result was two large volumes containing over 1,700 pages.

In her memoir of her husband Mrs. Davis now and then gives interesting glimpses into her own personality. From the beginning of her married life her days were full of interesting happenings, and she touches upon many of them in particularly entertaining fashion.

Miss Winnie Davis also wrote a book. It was a novel called "The Veiled Doctor," a story of antebellum days in a Southern colonial town.

The remains of Mrs. Davis will be interred beside those of her husband in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond.

New York, Oct. 17.—The remains of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the President of the Southern Confederacy, will be taken to Richmond, Va., for interment. Final arrangements for taking the body to Virginia have not been completed. According to the tentative plans prepared, the funeral party will leave New York Thursday and the funeral will be held on Friday.

Today hundreds of messages of condolence were received by members of her family from noted persons all over the country.

Mobile, Oct. 17.—Adjutant Gen. W. E. Mickel, of the United Confederate Veterans, who arrived here today from New Orleans, issued orders on the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, in part they were as follows: "With a heart full of grief, the General commanding announces to his beloved comrades the death of Mrs. Varina Jefferson Davis, which occurred in the city of New York Tuesday night, she being at the time of her death 80 years old, and bonds which connected the people of the South with the people of our first and only president, have been wholly severed with the exception of one link yet remaining. Mrs. Davis was such a part of the people of this section, participating in their griefs and sorrows and rejoicing in their prosperity and happiness and was for so many years intimately associated with them every way, that an extended notice is unnecessary and out of place. She was in every sense of the South, Southern and her earnest wish was to live and die among the people she loved so well and what she suffered that ill health compelled her to take up residence among strangers far her own people is known only to those who were intimate with her, and though denied the pleasure of being with them in body she was ever present in spirt and delighted in dwelliug upon the heroic deeds of our incomparable armies".

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 17.—Maj. Gen. Robt. Lowe, commanding the Mississippi division, United Confederate Veterans, issued orders this afternoon conveying the sorrow of the Mississippi veterans over the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis. A committee will be appointed composed of old friends of the family in this State, to attend the obsequies.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Sayers, granddaughter of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, wired this afternoon that it was the wish of the family that the funeral should be conducted with military honors such as marked the burial of her daughter Winnie. Lieutenant Governor J. Taylor Ellyson, who has the arrangements in charge and who received the message, will respect the request.

The funeral will take place Friday afternoon from St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the church, president and Mrs. Davis attended.

Washington, D. C., October 17.—President Roosevelt this morning sent a message of condolence on account of the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, as follows:

"Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, Hotel Majestic, New York:

"Pray accept the most sincere sympathy of Mrs. Roosevelt and myself."

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The President also directed that a suitable floral tribute be sent from the White House conservatories for the funeral.

The Brouwer Case.

Toms River, N. J. Oct. 17.—A verdict in the case of Dr. Frank Brouwer, on trial for the murder of his wife, is expected before sundown.

All that remains now is the summing up of the attorneys, the instructions to the jury and the verdict. Four hours will complete the summing up of the lawyers. Judge Hendrickson is expected to conclude his charge within an hour and it is predicted the jury will return a verdict shortly after this

Brouwer regards this as the day of his deliverance. He is confident of his acquittal, Brouwer's view is not held, however, by everyone. Prosecutor Brown today declared that in view of the evidence given he is sure Brouwer will be found guilty. Both sides rested last night in the taking of evidence.

Planing to Capture the Sultan.

Tangier, Morocco, Oct. 17.—Two thousand fanatical tribesmen are assembled south of Fez and are planning to cut off that city and capture the Sultan. Orders have been issued for the enlistment of 3,000 regulars to meet the insurgents, and a big battle is expected in the near future.

Serious fears are felt for the safety of Fez as the force organized to attack the place is undoubtedly strong.

The insurgents are reported to be commanded by renegade Europeans, and they are supplied with artillery.

Part of the programme of the besieging army is to kill all foreigners in Fez when they capture the city.

Among these are several Americans. The insurgents are said to be preaching at holy war.

Shortage Discovered.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A shortage of $61,000 has been discovered in the United States sub-treasury here by expert accountants delegated by the Treasury Department at Washington to count the $20,000,000 in the vaults.

United States Sub-Treasurer Akins admitted that expert accountants were at work in the sub-treasury, but declared he would have nothing to say till their investigation was completed.

The shortage was first discovered by Assistant Treasurer Akins a week ago. He immediately notified the officials at Washington and following his request for assistance in checking up the accounts a force of experts was assigned to his office. Mr. Akins hoped that an error had been made in checking the money from the vaults to the cages.

The Sunken Submarine Boat.

Bizerta, Tunis, Oct. 17.—Hope has been abandoned that any of the crew of fourteen in the French submarine Lutin, which disappeared yesterday while engaged in maneuvers, can be saved. The sea is still rough in the neighborhood of the spot where the Lutin made her fatal plunge and this has prevented searching vessels from locating the sunken vessel

Bizerta, Tunis, Oct. 17.—The submarine Lutin, which went to the bottom yesterday while engaged in maneuvers, has been definitely located at a depth of 115 feet. All the salvage vessels available have been sent to the spot and every effort will be made to raise her at once.

Not Guilty.

Montpelier, Vt, Oct. 17.—Not guilty by reason of insanity, was the verdict found today by the jury in the trial of Ray Mullen, the nurse charged with murdering Frederick Batchelder, on March 14, by feeding him a sandwich filled with arsenic. Mullen will be confined in the asylum for criminal insane at Watertown. It developed during the trial that three others of Mullen's patients died under circumstances warranting suspicion.

Cubans Want Office.

Havana, Oct. 17.—Gov. Magoon is still receiving petitions from politicians anxious that changes shall be made in the lists of officeholders in various parts of the islands. The struggle among Cubans has deteriorated to the point where it is a pure scramble on the part of the liberals, the victors in the revolution, to secure offices now held by moderates.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 17.—London was an active factor in the stock market this morning, buying fully 30,000 shares of copper and steel. Fractional advances in those stocks were reflected by a firmer tone in many other issues during the first hour. The railroads were generally firm. Bonds firm and active.

Many a man of humane impulses, who would not willingly harm a kitten, is guilty of cruelty where his own stomach is concerned. Overdriven overworked, when what it needs is something that will digest the food eaten and help the stomach to recuperate. Something like Kodol For Dyspepsia that is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

The Weightman Will Case.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17—Counsel for Mrs. Jones-Wister and Mrs. Weightman-Walker, who are contesting in court the will of the late Wm. Weightman, who left $60,000,000 refused to discuss the "yellow paper" episode this morning, but it was learned from an authoritative source that Mrs. Wister has decided to continue the fight.

It is not expected, however, that the case will be resumed at the present term of the Orphan's Court, owing to the legal red tape, and the chances are very slim for all the sensational details in the case being brought out until the December or January term.

Mrs. Wister when question concerning the abrupt ending of the case said that the "yellow paper" in question would benefit her when the trial was concluded.

The peculiar halt in the contest is an absorbing topic of conversation every day and the whole city is guessing at the mystery. It is assumed on every hand that a sensational scandal is hidden in the strange document. This impression is strengthened by the attitude of everyone connected in the case, particularly by the manner in which counsel on both side guard their statements when asked on the subject.

Harems on Arctic Whalers.

Erie, Pa., Oct. 17.—News received in this city from Second Lieutenant Muller Hay, of the United States revenue cutter Marie, reveals a startling condition of affairs existing between the whalers and people of the North. Lieutenant Hay's cutter made a cruise from Nome, Alaska, to punish whalers engaged in the nefarious work. Speaking of the habits of the officers of the whalers, Lieutenant Hay says: "They have been coming up here for years, where there was little or no law in the land, without any molestation, until they began to think that they were the law themselves. It became the custom of the captain and mates to kidnap squaws on the way up and take them into the Arctic, where they were often caught in the ice, and forced to winter. Some ships had regular harems on board. One captain, Captain Neroth, of the whaler 'Jeannette,' had a liking for girls. In the summer of 1905 he carried off three young native girls, one from Cape Prince of Wales, and two more from the Diomede Islands in the Straits and sailed North with them. The 'Bear' came along about two weeks behind the whalers, took a district attorney and marshal on board and tried to get him, but they were too late."

Liquor Bills in Social Register.

Portland, Me., Oct. 17.—Fearing that their names will be exposed, one hundred of Portland's smart set are keeping under cover on account of the fact that in a notorious kitchen barroom, which makes a specialty of smuggling liquors into the State, the sheriffs last night found a record of charges for liquor sold to these persons.

The book used to keep the accounts was an old social register of New York's "400." Opposite the name of "Miss Stuyvesant Fish" was marked four quarts of whisky, and to "Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt" were charged two barrels of beer. There was a key with this book, showing who "Mrs. Fish," "Mrs. Vanderbilt" and others were in Portland. The discovery has caused a sensation.

A Young Woman's Revenge.

New York, Oct. 17.—Infuriated because the man she loved had wedded another woman, Annie Jasper, a pretty young woman, armed herself with a fruit jar of muriatic acid and showered the bridegroom as he came from his home last night on Staten Island. The victim fell to the ground. The girl fled, but was later arrested. The jilted girl tried today to beat out her brains against the sides of the cell in the Stapleton police station. She had to be bound to keep her from killing herself.

Suit Withdrawn.

Dublin, Oct. 17.—Permission was granted by the Vacation Court to withdraw the suit for $50,000 damages filed by Richard Croker against the London Magazine for libel, on the apology of the magazine for its offensive article and the payment of the court's costs. Mr. Croker's suit arose over an article by the London Magazine called "Tammany in England" in which were general charges that Croker, as head of Tammany Hall, was reponsible for corrupt political conditions in New York city.

The Castellane Case.

Paris, Oct. 17.—A continuance for two weeks was ordered today of the hearing of the suit brought by the numerous creditors of Count Boni de Castellane against the count. A protest against this was lodged by the Countess through her attorneys, but it was overruled.

New York, Oct. 17.—The democratic organization of Brooklyn, under orders from leader Patrick H. McCarren, is today whetting knives to slash W. R. Hearst, the nominee of the party for governor. It is war to the death between Hearst and McCarren in King's county. The committee of Brooklyn endorsed the entire state ticket while at the same time Senator McCarren repudiated the head of the ticket in a speech branding him as a bolter.

To Attack the Vatican.

The Osservatore Romano yesterday published a semiofficial article saying that the French Cabinet is preparing to attack the Vatican at the reopening of the chambers, by accusing it of engaging in a conspiracy with the monarchists to overthrow the republic, and giving the following statements as proof of its charges:

That the royalist press which opposed the late Pope Leo XIII approves of Pope Pius X.

That the royalist leaders urge the Pope to support the religious movement in France.

That the Pope granted an interview to the royalist organ, the Gaulois.

The Osservatore Romano answers these allegations by stating that Pope Pius, like Pope Leo, loyally accepts the republic, as the former has repeatedly affirmed, confirming his statement in his recent encyclical on the church and state separation law, and challenges anybody to quote a word uttered by the Pope or to adduce a fact showing the Pontiff as an enemy of the republic.

The proofs to be referred to by the French government, the Osservatore Romano adds, are not serious. The royalists support the Pope either as good Catholics or for political aims. In the latter case it is not the Vatican's fault, "the responsibilits resting on the republic and resulting from the anti-religious measures adopted in oppressing the church under the guise carrying out republican ideals."

The Thaw Case.

New York, Oct. 17.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of the slayer of Stanford White, realizes that she was the person meant by District Attorney Jerome yesterday in his veiled hint that another beside Harry Thaw might be indicted to answer for the murder. Mrs. Thaw, however, is not worried or alarmed in the least because of the partially concealed threat against her contained in the District Attorney's words.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section cloudy and threatening tonight and Thurday; probably light rain; fresh northeasterly winds.

Accused Dismissed.

Some excitement was caused in the Southern Railway yard yesterday afternoon by a difficulty which occurred near the carpenters' shop between F. M. Woodward, a special policeman, and a man named Frederick Brook, during which the latter was struck over the head by Woodward with an iron bolt nearly a foot long. According to the special officer, the man refused to leave the premises when ordered to do so, and after applying an insulting epithet to Woodward was about to assault him when the special officer struck him with the bolt, after which others employed in the yard came to the assistance of the officer. Officers Lyles and Nicholson later appeared and took charge of Brook. The latter in his statement in the Police Court this morning denied having acted in a disorderly or discourteous manner; said he had a note to one of the officials and was seeking a place as car inspector; that he had been working in Norfolk, and arrived here yesterday. He exhibited a pass on a Virginia railroad. He said he was born in England, and had been in this country about three months. Brook had been charged with trespass on the warrant, and Justice Caton dismissed him.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

Yesterday a compromise was affected in the case of William Wooster, colored, indicted for an assault upon John A. Carpenter, by Wooster paying a fine and the costs of the case, amounting to $25

Judge Nicol adjourned court till tomorrow in order to go to Leesburg today and open court for Judge Turner, who has been called to Warrenton by the serious illness of his son.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. John Cisco, indicted for an attempt to commit an assault upon Mrs. Bessie Welch, will be called tomorrow. Commonwealth's Attorney Crandall Mackey will represent the State, and Attorneys Machen and Moncure will appear for the defense. Cisco is a native of Austria, and an effort has been made to interest the Austrian minister in his behalf, but it is stated that nothing has been heard from that official in connection with the case. Cisco was employed in a stone quarry on the Virginia side of the Potomac, and it is alleged that several months ago he went to Mrs. Welch's home, which is located near the quarry, and when she resisted he tried to cut her throat with a knife.

Cameron Run Hounds.

The Cameron Run Hounds met for the first time this season at Quaker Lane at two o'clock October the fifteenth. As usual only a small field turned out to meet the master. Hounds were thrown in on Mr. Alexis Smith's place and ran to the Leesburg turnpike, crossing the farms of Messrs. Cunningham and Cleveland. From there they ran through the farms of Messrs. Slaughter and Rust. Here horses and hounds were given a chance to take a long breath, after which the hounds took up the scent in a big grass field on Hampton farm and finished over those big plank fences we all know about.

Besides the master, Mr. Charles Hooff on the Buck, and the whips on Charity and Jacobel, those well up all the way were Mrs. Courtland Smith, on Up-to-Date, Miss Herbert, on a green one, Miss Chichester, on Commonwealth, and Mr. Cooper Dawson on Neola. There were no accidents to mar the pleasure of the afternoon.

Will Leave the City.

Bessie Johnson, who lives in the northeastern section of the city, was before the Police Court this morning with three charges against her. Kate Williams alleged that the prisoner had assaulted her, while the officer testified that the woman was drunk on the street and that she kept a disorderly house. Justice Caton gave her the choice of going to jail or leaving Alexandria by sundown tomorrow. She announced that she would be out of the city by that time and was accordingly dismissed.

Tribute of Respect.

A meeting was held this evening at the residence of Mrs. Herndon, on Prince street, of the Mary Custis Lee Chapter, U. D. C., at which suitable resolutions were adopted in respect to the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis and loving tributes were paid to her memory. Mrs. Davis was a member of this chapter which is the mother chapter of this organization.

The Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter also met this evening and took suitable action concerning the death of Mrs. Davis.

Fined Ten Dollars.

Gertrude Jones, colored, was a prisoner in the Police Court this morning, she having been arrested by Officers Nicholson and Knight at the instance of Noah Green, colored, who alleged that she assaulted him with a bottle and a lamp. The woman acknowledged that she hurled the lamp at Green, but denied that she had used a bottle as a missile. She alleged that Green had provoked the assault. The woman was fined $10.

Royal Arcanum.

There was an interesting meeting of George Mason Council, Royal Arcanum, last night at St. Mary's Hall. Vice Grand Regent Howard G. Avery, of Norfolk, was present. After the business before the meeting had been transacted, the council repaired to Rammel Brothers' restaurant where a feast had been prepared. Speeches were made by several members of the order.

Death of Mrs. Padgett.

Mrs. R. V. Padgett, widow of William L. Padgett, died at her home in this city at an early hour this morning. The deceased was 78 years old. Mrs. Padgett was born in Alexandria, and was the daughter of John W. and Elizabeth Robinson. For many years she had conducted the millinery business here.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tonight.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Gertrude Jones, colored, arrested by Officers Nicholson and Lyles charged with assaulting Noah Green, was fined $10.

Bessie Johnson, charged with keeping a disorderly house, with using abusive language toward Kate Williams and for being drunk on the street, was dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

William Porter, colored, arrested by Lieut. Smith charged with assaulting Fannie Mayers, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear.

Frederick Brook, arrested by Officers Nicholson and Lyles charged with trespassing upon the property of the Southern Railway Company was dismissed.

George Davis, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Henderson charged with assaulting Addie Woodward, was fined $5. The complainant was also fined $5 for improper conduct.

A young white man, arrested by Officers Beach and Nicholson charged with assault, was dismissed.

S. G. Reynolds, arrested by Officer Young charged with conducting the fortune telling business without a license, was dismissed upon promising to procure the same.

The Robbins Shows.

Besides the standard gay glittering, zoological and spectacular features characteristic of the bigger circuses, the Frank A. Robbins & Co, all new great feature shows, which comes to Alexandria on next Saturday, announce a new historical addition of uncommon pomp and novelty, which will command unusual attention as a splendid and striking innovation. This luxurious and living pageant is termed "The Tribunal of Nations," and its composition seems to justify the comprehensive title. It consists of a number of great and gorgeous floats, drawn by magnificently caparisoned and beautiful horses, upon which appear in heroic groups and royal tableaux representatives of the most famous warriors and rulers of both ancient and modern times, as for example, a living counterfeit presentment of Julius Cæsar, of Frederick the Great of Prussia of Wilhelmina, the present lovely and popular Queen of the Netherlands; of the Emperor of Austria, the kings of Italy, Spain, Sweden, the Mikado of Japan, etc., etc. In short, an object-teaching lesson of richest, rarest and most impressive character.

Personal.

Mr. G. L. Boothe has gone to Richmond to attend a meeting of the State democratic executive committee.

The branch of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation at The Plains was opened on Monday. A cordial invitation had been extended to the stockholders, patrons, their friends and the public generally, to be present and the invitation was accepted by a large number. CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well.

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

A mother should come to her child's aid at this critical time and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tullahoma, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had soreness and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing from girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

Mosquitoless Cities.

Over in Europe there are many happy towns where the note of the mosquito is never heard and the inhabitants don't care a snap about the pennyroyal market. But in America the cities which can claim to be mosquitoless would not run up to a dozen. Denver is one of them, and, strange to say, Grand Rapids, Mich., only a short way from the gnat Gehennas of Lake Superior, is another. The explanation is that the city is built on hillocks of drift sand so deep and so finely pulverised that they absorb moisture like tissue paper. Stagnant water does not get a ghost of a chance to accumulate, and mosquitoes have carried their cargo of microbes to more congenial markets.—Health Culture.

Golf and the Liver.

Golf is the greatest of all games. It is the only recreation that is at one and the same time health giving and a complete preoccupation without being unduly physically exhaustive. But I am profoundly convinced that it is far better for a man's liver that he should play a poor game than a good one. I know from personal experience that it is far better for the liver to play a really bad game. Nothing stirs up the liver like the irritation, the excitements and the paroxysms of a really bad game.—London Graphic.

The Dog and the Stick.

Professor Wilhelm Wundt, the famous German psychologist, tells of teaching a dog to jump over a stick. One day the professor commanded his dog to jump, but held out no stick. At first the dog seemed surprised, and on repeated ordering to jump he barked. At last he sprang into the air and barked very vigorously, as if to complain of the absurd and ridiculous command to jump when no stick was held out.

Man's Debasing Influence.

"This African explorer whose experiences are being published in some of the papers says parrots are delicious eating. I always thought they were very tough."

"But he refers to wild parrots. It's their association with men that makes most parrots tough."—Philadelphia Press.

Two Sides of a Word.

Miss Sharpe—I've paid this bill once. Baker—Indeed, ma'am, I'm very sorry that I didn't recollect it. Miss Sharpe—I dare say that you are sorry that you didn't re-collect it, but I'll take care of that.

The Good One.

"There is but one good wife in this town," said a clergyman in the course of his sermon—the congregation looked expectant—"and every married man thinks he's got her," added the minister.

A Monster Musical Instrument.

The most gigantic harp ever constructed, as far as the record goes, was that made by Veritan, the provost of Burkli, near Basel, Switzerland, in 1787. That was a long while ago, but the fame of M. Veritan's gigantic harp was such that it is still occasionally mentioned by writers on the rare and the wonderful, just as the sea serpent, bloody rain, five mastodons, etc., are. M. Veritan's colossal musical instrument was 320 feet in length, and, on that account, was constructed in an open lot instead of in a harp factory. It was most simple in construction, consisting of fifteen wires strung tightly between two poles. These wires were of different sizes, the largest being one-sixth of an inch in diameter and the smallest one-twelfth of an inch. They were stretched north and south and inclined in such a manner as to form an angle of from twenty to thirty degrees with the horizon. This queer instrument was not intended as an exaggerated toy, but was constructed for the express purpose of foretelling changes in the weather, which were calculated by Professor Veritan according to the different tones the instrument made when the wind was blowing through it.

As You Please.

In the ancient times there lived a wonderfully wise man, of whom it was said that he could answer correctly any question put to him. There was one, however, who thought himself clever enough to outwit the sage. This man took a poor, captive bird and clasped it so closely in his hand that only the head and tail were visible.

"Tell me," said he to the renowned guesser of riddles, "is the bird which I hold in my hand alive or dead?"

If the answer were "Dead," thought this artful plotter, he would just open his hand and let the bird fly. If the answer were "Alive," he would with one little squeeze crush the poor bird to death.

But the wise man proved himself equal to the occasion and replied, "It is as you please."

Each one holds within his or her grasp the fair bird of life. Which is it to be? A blessing or a bane? It is "as you please."

Pressed to Death.

An English court has sentenced a woman to imprisonment because she refused to speak during a trial. The old penalty for remaining mute under similar conditions was being pressed to death. The form of sentence set forth "the prisoner shall be laid in some low, dark house, where he shall lie naked on the earth and one arm shall be drawn to one quarter of the house with a cord and the other arm to another quarter, and in the same manner let it be done with his legs, and let there be laid upon his body iron and stone, as much as he can bear—or more." There the man had to lie. On the following day he was given three morsels of bread without water, on the following water, but no bread. And this was his diet until he died.

Great Discovery.

The editor of a Kansas paper states that he once borrowed a Winchester rifle and started up the street a few days after to deliver the weapon to its owner. The delinquent subscribers got it into their heads that he was on the warpath, and every one he met insisted on paying what he owed him. One man wiped out a debt of ten years' standing. On his return to his office he found a load of hay, fifteen bushels of corn, ten bushels of potatoes, a load of wood and a barrel of turnips that had been brought in. We would like to borrow a Winchester for a day or two.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Disadvantage of Health.

A visitor among the poor of the east end of London found unexpected testimony to the disadvantages of health in one of his calls. Mrs. B. had a family of a dozen children, and, like most of her class, she had her tale of woe to tell. "How are the children, Mrs. B.?" inquired the caller. "All very well, indeed, sir; very well, indeed," was the answer. "You ought to be thankful, I'm sure, with so much sickness about." "Yes, sir; I suppose I ought to be thankful; but, I tell you, when they're well they eat an awful lot."

Java's Population.

Java is very thickly populated, and cultivation is pushed to an extraordinary distance up the steep slopes of the hills. The plain of Leles in the month of July "is one sea of ripe golden rice, with here and there a village of brown thatch roofs nestling in a group of green cocoanut trees." In the middle of the island white chimneys of sugar mills peep above miles and miles of sugarcane fields.

Fire and Water.

Why does water put out fire? Water reduces the temperature of the flame below the point of ignition; therefore it cannot burn. Water does not smother the flames even when the burning brand is completely immersed in a tank of water, because the first contact puts out the fire—that is, reduces the temperature of the flame below the point of ignition.

A cold is much more easily cured when the bowels are open. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar opens the bowels and drives the cold out of the system in young or old. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Devil's Island Torture.

is no worse than the terrible case of Piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Bucklen's Arnica salve, and less than a box permanently cured me, writes L. S. Napier, of Rugles, Ky. Heals all wounds, Burns and Sores like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists.

Shake off the grip of your old enemy, Nasal Catarrh, by using Ely's Cream Balm. Then will all the swelling and soreness be driven out of the tender, inflamed membrances. The fits of sneezing will cease and the discharge, as offensive to others as to yourself, will be cured when the causes that produce it are removed. Cleanliness, comfort and health renewed by the use of Cream Balm. Sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.
